Form for Partners Supporting Partnership-Based Temporary Entry Applications

Supporting information for a 'partnership-based temporary entry application'

About this form

'Partnership-based temporary entry applications' are applications made under the following instructions:

- Partners of New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders
- Partners of holders of work or student visas

The person applying for a temporary visa must complete the form Application for a Partnership-Based Temporary Entry Visa (INZ1198) or apply online through www.immigration.govt.nz

Requirements for partners/intended partners

More information about the requirements you must meet as the partner or intended partner of a person applying for a temporary visa can be found in the Guide for Partnership-Based Temporary Entry Applications (INZ 1199).

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, please write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

What do you have to do?

- New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders must complete sections A to C of the form.
- Applicants for, or holders of, student or work visas must complete sections A and B of the form.
- All applicants must complete Section E: Declaration by person supporting an applicant under partnership-based temporary entry applications.

When you have completed the form, give the form with your evidence/attachment to your partner/intended partner so that they can include it with their application.

About the information you provide

The information about you on this form is collected to determine your eligibility to support your partner/intended partner's temporary entry application.

The main recipient of the information is Immigration New Zealand, a service of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, but it may also be shared with other government agencies, which are entitled to the information under applicable legislation, or with your partner/intended partner (if you have consented at B10).

Collection of this information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not then your partner/intended partner's application may be declined.

Any person has the right to access the information about them held by Immigration New Zealand and to ask for any of it to be corrected if they think that is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington, New Zealand. This is not where this form should be sent.

Completing this form does not mean that your partner/intended partner's temporary entry application will be approved. Applicants for temporary entry visas must meet all of the requirements of the instructions they are applying under before they will be granted a visa to be in New Zealand. For full details of the requirements you must meet and your partner/intended partner must meet, see our website www.immigration.govt.nz.
